

CORRESPONDENCE

Glendale.
Wheat and grass look finely.
Wm. Hoffman is quite sick.
Farmers look sour; poor seed corn.
Johnny Speicher lost a horse last week.
Lute wants to be president of the L. S. S.
What bee consumes more honey than it gathers? Maybee.
Johnny Wilson of Galesburg, made his parents a short visit last week.
Lute, wouldn't it look a little better if you should take your wife along when you attend choir meeting?
John Buck wants to rent a house in which to store his good clothes, to keep them from being cut into carpet rags.
The Glendale Sunday school has accepted an invitation to meet with the M. E. S. S. at Bloomingdale on June 8th, children's day.
Edwin Colwell Post G. A. R. of Bloomingdale, extends a cordial invitation to all who live in the vicinity of that place, to meet with them on Memorial Day.

Prospect Lake.

W. N. Cornwell is putting needed repairs on his dwelling house.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Jacobs visited their daughter, Mrs. Roll Harris, last week.
Mrs. Ella Sanborn and her children have returned to their home in northern Michigan.
George Taplin recently caught a silver eel from the pond at Drew's mill (the old Chadwick mill) that measured 28 1/2 inches in length.
The many friends of Mrs. Nell Manley will be pleased to learn that she is still gaining in health, and is better now than she has been for a number of years.

H. G. Sanborn's team ran away recently, while he was returning from Decatur, a cow lariat in the road being the cause. The buggy was smashed up some, but no one hurt.

Children's day (June 1st) will be observed with appropriate exercises at the Prospect Lake Sunday school, to commence at 10:30 with the lesson for the day, and special programs to follow immediately after.

James Jennings was buried last Friday in the Prospect Lake cemetery. James was a brother of Prof. Alfred Jennings of the Lawrence graded school, and was at Ann Arbor studying medicine, where he died very suddenly.

Lawrence.

Webster has the frame of his new house up.
Frank Kelly was in town last Sunday looking as hearty and smiling as in days of yore.

Dr. Wiggins has been raising the roof of his house, and putting in a bay window—in the house of course.

Memorial services were well attended, the church being full. Elder Woodmansee delivered an excellent discourse.

The skating and dancing party at the rink last Friday evening, was very well attended and a pleasant time is reported.

The brick-work on Crippen's new store is finished. The building, when completed, will be occupied by J. F. Barrows.

Memorial Day will be observed by the Post, with appropriate ceremonies. Rev. Woodmansee will deliver an address. All should be interested in a day dedicated to the memory of our dead soldiers.

Our school exercises have been postponed one week, on account of the death of James Jennings, only brother of the Professor. Mr. Jennings was attending the medical department of the University at Ann Arbor. He was a young man of more than ordinary ability, and was much loved and highly respected by his many friends. The people all sympathize with Prof. Jennings and the other members of the family in their second serious affliction during the year.

White Mountains and Sea Shore Excursion.

The noted excursion so successfully inaugurated by Mr. Brearly of the Detroit Evening News several years since and which were carried over the picturesque Grand Trunk road, will be continued the present season under the direct management of that road, and will equal, if not excel, any excursions ever before sent over this excellent route. The excursions will be under the immediate supervision of Mr. William Robinson, the general agent for the road at Detroit who is thoroughly acquainted with the whole route, and will see that nothing is omitted or neglected, that will in any way add to the comfort and pleasure of those under his charge. Quite a number of our citizens availed themselves last season of the superior inducements offered over this route and all are loud in their praises, of not only the many beautiful and picturesque scenes on the route, but also of the uniform courtesy and gentlemanly conduct accorded them by the officers in charge of the trains. The first excursion for 1884, will leave Detroit over the Grand Trunk road on Thursday morning, June 26, at 9 o'clock. The fare for the round trip will be $22 to the White Mountains or Portland and return. Double berths in Pullman sleeping cars can be obtained for $6 from Detroit to Portland, and which will accommodate two persons. The dates of other excursions are July 10th, and July 24th. Guide books giving general information regarding the excursions can be obtained free of charge, from Wm. Robinson, General Agent Grand Trunk R.R., Detroit.
